Privacy Collection Notice

Under the Privacy Act (the Act) Al Hidayah Islamic School is required to provide you with certain information as to how we protect your privacy and how we comply with the requirements of the Act and the 13 Australian Privacy Principles (APP's). This information is set out in our Privacy Policy which is available upon request in hard copy from the School office.

Our Privacy Policy describes:

- who we collect information from;
- the types of personal information collected and held by us;
- how this information is collected and held;
- the purposes for which your personal information is collected, held, used and disclosed;
- how you can gain access to your personal information and seek its correction;
- how you may complain or enquire out about our collection, handling, use or disclosure of your personal information and how that complaint or inquiry will be handled;
- whether we are likely to disclose your personal information to any overseas recipients; and
- permission to use VEVO to check Visa entitlements during period of enrolment.

We strongly recommend that you read our Privacy Policy and if you have any queries with respect to its content you should contact the Principal.

I understand that should it become known that I withheld any information, intentionally or otherwise, and or made any false or misleading statements in this application form, the application may be rejected. If it does not become known that information was withheld, intentionally or otherwise, or that the information supplied was inaccurate or misleading until after an enrolment has been accepted and as a result it is determined that it is not in the best interest of the child to remain enrolled in the School, the School reserves the right to terminate the enrolment without notice.
